

FUTURE REVIEW

Scan to review worksheet

Expemo code:

16XT-C3ME-4PDJ

1

Review - Predictions

Complete the grammar review with 'will' or 'going to'.

We can use going to + infinitive and also _____¹ + infinitive to say something that you think or know about the future:

Germany is going to win the match. I'm certain.

I think he'll come to the party.

We often use _____² + infinitive to say something that we are sure about the future because of something that we see or know now. There is a present feeling that a future event will happen:

Look at those clouds! I think it's going to rain.

Jenny looks very sad. I think she's going to cry.

We often prefer to use _____³ + infinitive to say something that we think about the future when there is no present feeling that the event will happen:

I think it will rain next week.

In the future, I think people won't write emails anymore.

2

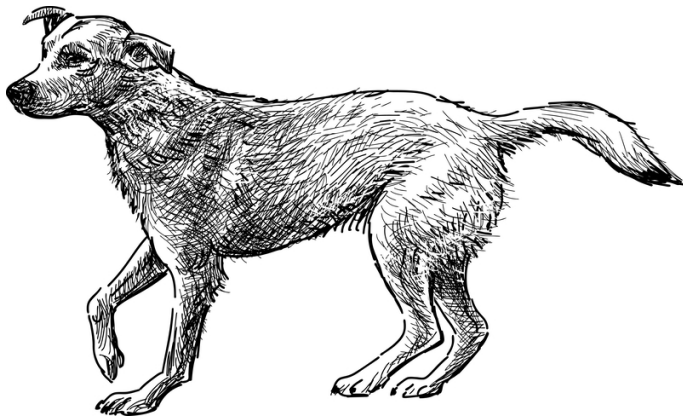

Practice I - Predictions with 'going to'

Recall the use of 'going to' for making predictions. Watch the video. For each clip, say what you think is going to happen. To access the video, scan the code on the right with your mobile device.

Video

1. It's going to rain
2. The glass
3. They
4. The bus
5. The man
6. The dog

3

Practice II - Will or going to Complete the sentences with the verbs in the correct form:

1. I think the president will win (win) the next election.
2. In 20 years' time, I think there _____ (be) fewer cars on the roads.
3. It's very cold. I think it _____ (snow).
4. I think Dana _____ (get) married next year.
5. The traffic is really bad. We _____ (be) late.
6. Hurry up! You _____ (miss) the bus.
7. I think the bus _____ (arrive) late. But I could be wrong.
8. I lost the company laptop. My boss _____ (be) very happy!
9. Who do you think _____ (get) the job?
10. Do you think that people _____ (live) on the moon in the future?

4

Review - Future plans and decisions

Complete the grammar review with 'will', 'going to' or 'present continuous'.

We can use _____¹ + infinitive to talk about plans or decisions for the future:

What are you going to do this weekend?

I'm going to visit my uncle next week.

We also use the _____² to talk about plans for the future:

What are you doing this weekend?

I'm meeting a friend later for lunch.

With the verb go, many English speakers prefer to avoid going to go because it sounds repetitive:

I'm going out tonight. (I'm going ~~to go~~ out tonight.)

We use _____³ + infinitive when we don't have a plan and to express a spontaneous decision:

The phone is ringing. I'll answer it.

It's cold here. I'll close the window.

5

Practice 1

Make true sentences about your plans using the verbs below in the correct form. Compare with a partner.

1. I (go on vacation) next month.
2. I (work) next week.
3. I (meet a friend for lunch) tomorrow.
4. I (learn a new language) next month.
5. I (go out with friends) tonight.
6. I (go to the movies) tonight.
7. I (go shopping) later.
8. I (stay at home) tonight.
9. I (visit family) this weekend.
10. I (play sports) tomorrow.

Now make questions about each sentence like in the example.

1. Are you going on vacation next month?
2.?
3.?
4.?
5.?
6.?
7.?
8.?
9.?
10.?

Ask and answer the questions with a partner like in the example below:

Dialogue

- A: Are you going on vacation next month?
B: Yes, I am. / No, I'm not.

6 Practice 2 - Future decisions

Complete the sentences with Present Continuous, 'going to' or 'will' + infinitive:

- John: What _____¹ (you/do) later? Would you like to go for lunch?
Mary: I'm afraid I _____² (meet) my brother at the airport. He's flying from Boston.
John: Oh, okay. In that case, I _____³ (go) for lunch alone.
Mary: Where _____⁴ (you/eat)?
John: I don't know. Maybe I _____⁵ (try) that new Italian restaurant. And what _____⁶ (you/do) with your brother?
Mary: Well, this Saturday we _____⁷ (visit) lots of museums and galleries. Would you like to come out with us?
John: Umm....I _____⁸ (let) you know later. I don't know my plans yet.
Mary: Okay, I _____⁹ (call) you tomorrow.
John: Err, okay. Oh, I remember now. I _____¹⁰ (play) football with some friends. We arranged it ages ago.
Mary: I see. Well, enjoy your lunch then.